EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Jennifer Bremer

The Texas Produced Water Consortium filed the first report to the Legislature.

Created by Senate Bill 601 by Chairman Charles Perry (R-Lubbock), the Consortium is responsible for producing a report that includes the following:

1. suggested changes to laws and administrative rules to better enable beneficial uses of fluid oil and gas waste, including specific changes designed to find and define beneficial uses for fluid oil and gas waste outside of the oil and gas industry;
2. suggested guidance for establishing fluid oil and gas waste permitting and testing standards;
3. a technologically and economically feasible pilot project for state participation in a facility designed and operated to recycle fluid oil and gas waste; and
4. an economic model for using fluid oil and gas waste in a way that is economical and efficient and that protects public health and the environment.

Highlights of the report include a two-tier pilot project, request for state funding, and potential permitting changes necessary for the Railroad Commission and/or TCEQ to complete. The report proposes a two-tier pilot project. The first pilot project would commence immediately and focus on identifying the constituents in the produced water. The second would focus on testing technologies and their applicability to various end uses.

Notably, the report does not include the outstanding produced water ownership issue. Due to litigation and differing opinions of the Consortium members, it was decided that it was in the best interest to not include in this report, but rather continue discussions and address in subsequent reports.

Executive Director, Jennifer Bremer, served as the policy committee co-chair.

A copy of the full report is available on the TLMA Website or at <https://www.depts.ttu.edu/research/tx-water-consortium/>.

2022 STATEWIDE MEMBERS MEETING REGISTRATION

Registration is OPEN online at www.tlma.org. There's a "Quick Link" to the registration on the Home page or you can click "2022 Statewide Members Meeting" under "News & Events". You may also register by filling out the registration form on page 5 of this newsletter and mail with payment to the TLMA office: 1005 Congress Ave., Ste. 360, Austin, TX 78701. If you mail in the registration form, please make sure you mail in the correct amount.

We are still seeking sponsors! If you or someone you know is interested in sponsoring the event, please email execdir@tlma.org for the appropriate form and more details on the opportunities available. Sponsors have until September 15 to be included in the printed materials. After that date, we will still accept sponsors but will not be able to guarantee inclusion in meeting materials.

Are you interested in attending, but not able to make the trip to San Antonio?
Join us virtually!

In-person attendance is HIGHLY encouraged, but understand that isn't always feasible. TLMA is offering an online option for the meeting this year for those unable to join us at the McNay Art Museum. There is not a discounted price to attend virtually versus in-person. It will be held via Zoom Webinar and we will only answer questions submitted beforehand from those attending virtually. Those attending in-person will have time after each presentation to ask questions.

To register for the virtual option, please register using either registration form. If mailing in, please write virtual on the registration form. If registering online, please send an email to Jennifer Bremer at execdir@tlma.org with the request to receive the Zoom information. More information on the virtual option is available online.

Hotel rooms must be booked by Wednesday, September 14! Contact the Wyndham Garden Inn Riverwalk/Museum Reach to book or go online to www.tlma.org/2022smm for the booking link.

Due to the venue change, exhibitor booths will be located in the same room as the meeting and will not have the option to visit with them during presentations as you have been able to in the past. Exhibitor booths will open at 8 a.m. and will remain open approximately one hour after the meeting concludes at 4 p.m. We have also included additional breaks throughout the meeting.

The schedule is subject to minor changes, but all speakers and topics are confirmed. Any changes will be listed on the website.

The Texas Land & Mineral Owners Association will return to an in-person meeting at the McNay Art Museum in San Antonio for our Statewide Members Meeting this fall. The meeting is an all-day event featuring outstanding speakers who present information on a variety of topics affecting your land and mineral interests. You will have the opportunity to meet fellow TLMA members, connect with old friends, and share stories over breakfast and lunch. In addition, attendees can visit with select exhibitors who offer products or services related to your land and mineral ownership.

UPDATE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I hope you all had a wonderful summer and are enjoying this rain and cooler temperatures. I don't think I've ever been as ready for fall as I am this year. At home, after a very brown summer and the few rain showers always managing to be just to the east, the grass is greening again.

This summer, I spent a lot of time on the road—Texas A&M Beef Cattle Short Course, my first TALL session, meetings in Lubbock, NARO-TX Convention and more. It was great to have so many events back to back and to see all of you! I'm excited to share some of the information I learned about through the TALL Program on the TLMA website. Be looking for that soon!

As you can see on the next page, there are a lot of events happening this fall! I hope that you will attend and watch as many as possible, but if not, we'll update you in the next newsletter.

The TLMA Statewide Members Meeting is Thursday, October 6. I really hope to see all of you there. It will be a great meeting covering some very pertinent topics for land and mineral owners.

Before we realize, the next legislative session will be upon us. The TLMA legislative affairs team is gearing up for meetings to address legislation that may potentially come our way. Billy Phenix will have a great update for all of you in October!

As always, I'm only a phone call or email away if you need anything! I look forward to seeing you in October!

Jennifer
