Race for Speaker Gets More Crowded

In just over 100 days, elected officials will gather for the 89th Legislative Session. The first order of business for the House of Representatives will be electing a speaker. The past month, the following individuals have joined the race for Speaker:

Rep. David Cook (R-Mansfield)

James Frank (R- Wichita Falls)

John Smithee (R-Amarillo)

Ana-Maria Ramos (D-Dallas)

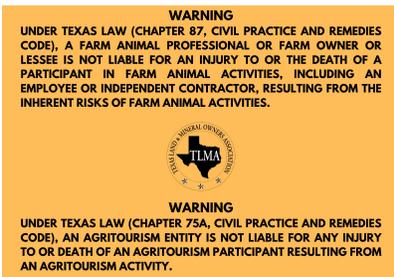

Those members already in the race include: Current Speaker Dade Phelan (R-Orange), Rep. Tom Oliverson (R-Cypress), and Rep. Shelby Slawson (R-Granbury).

However, in the last week, Rep. Shelby Slawson and Rep. Tom Oliverson have decided to support Rep. David Cook for Speaker.

House Committee on State Affairs Holds Panhandle Wildfire Hearing

Speaker Dade Phelan created the House Investigative Committee on the Panhandle Wildfires following the devastation in February of this year. The Investigative Committee, chaired by Rep. Ken King (R-Canadian) released its report in May. Subsequently, Speaker Phelan also assigned an interim charge on the Panhandle Wildfires to the State Affairs Committee which held a hearing on this interim charge on September 17. All individuals that testified at the hearing also testified at the hearing in Pampa earlier this year. The Railroad Commission testified that there has been an increase in the number of complaints filed by landowners. No new additional testimony was given by the landowners.
